	All present introduced themselves and shared with the group something positive that had happened since they last met. Aaron then got the young people to arrange themselves in age order without speaking. The group was then divided into 4 groups according to their age. Each was given a toilet roll and 10 minutes to 'make a mummy' the group with the best 'mummy' won some sweets.
2.	House Keeping - Lesley
	Lesley reminded everyone: - what to do if there was a fire or emergency. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Of the private Facebook page which helps all members to communicate outside of meetings. - Who to ring outside of office hours, should they have difficulty with transport or anything else. - Also of their election which is happening in July to elect new chairs for SiCC & SLCC meetings. 	Young people still need to write their manifestos.
3.	Feedback Book & General Feedback - Lesley
	Comments left in the feedback book from the last meeting were read out. Lesley also feedback to the group the comments she had received from the 'Getting to Know You' days where those involved had said how amazing SiCC & SLCC where and what a great job they did. Lesley also asked the group to give Ryan a big thank you for all his hard work attending professional meetings to promote MOMO and give a demonstration and his work promoting the website & MOMO	Big Well Done SiCC & SLCC Thank You Ryan at all the 'Getting to Know You' days.

4.	Expression of Interest
	Jordan read out the Expression of Interest form from LADO (Local Area Designated Office) who asked SiCC & SLCC if they would look at some questions he had written about transport, to see if they would be understood by young people. Jordan also read out an email from Angela (children looked after nurse) who had written to thank the group for allowing her to attend their meeting and for their ideas. Angela also asked if she could become a regular volunteer for the group.	Young People voted and agreed to look at these after lunch. Lesley to email Anthony (LADO) Young people voted and all agreed. Lesley to email Angela.
5.	Seeing Friends & Family – Cathy and Julie (Mendip Team)
	Cathy and Julie explained that they now have a building in Wells which is going to be used for young people to spend time with their families. The building was going to be called a 'Contact Centre' but young people have asked that the time they spend with their families not to be called 'contact'. Cathy and Julie came along to ask the young people what they thought the building should be called.	All young people put forward their suggestions and were given three votes each, which they could place however they wanted. Willow Centre won – young people also explained why they liked this name and gave suggestion of other groups who could use the centre in the evening & weekends
	 The image shows two columns of handwritten notes on a piece of paper.
